Ode to Gyanodaya

In Gyanodaya, where minds take flight,
English and Hindi, our languages bright.
Logic and manners, we hold them dear,
Ahinsak values forever near.

Gyanodaya, a beacon of light,
Best emerging school, shining bright.
In our district, we proudly stand,
SDG's champions, a nationwide band.

Art and culture, our spirits soar,
Physical prowess, we explore more.
Judging right from wrong, a skill refined,
Self reliance blooms a happy mind.

Principal, staff And students unite,
Gyanodaya's spirit burning bright.
Commitment echoes in every stride,
A journey together with joy as our guide.

With honours adorned, our story told,
Gyanodaya's legacy forever bold.
From learning and laughter, we pave the way,
For happy individuals, come what may.

Math Skit

The activity report dated 03/04/24 from Gyanodaya HR. Sec. School in Khurai showcased an engaging Maths Skit focused on the interdisciplinary nature of mathematics and the distinction between Even and Odd numbers.

Led by teachers Nayan Singhai and Deepa Agarwal, the skits aimed to illustrate how mathematics intersects with various subjects like Science, Geography, History, Hindi, and English, thereby enhancing students' comprehension and appreciation for the subject's relevance.

Through demonstrations ranging from Earth's water level to the structure of alphabets, students gained insight into the practical applications of mathematics. Additionally, the skit effectively conveyed the concept of Even and Odd numbers, aiding students in their ability to differentiate between them. Although the report lacks specific recommendations or remarks from the judge, the activities seem to have positively impacted students' understanding and engagement with mathematics.

To Know Our Address

On Wednesday, 03/04/2024, Ms. Anuja Modi and Mr. Anurag Singh Thakur organized the "To Know Our Address" activity for sixth-grade students at an undisclosed school.

This activity aimed to equip students with a comprehensive understanding of their address at various geographic levels, starting from a global perspective down to their school. Through map-reading exercises, students identified their country, state, city, and school, developing crucial map-reading skills and geographical knowledge along the way. The activity had a significant impact on students, enhancing their geographical awareness, map-reading proficiency, spatial thinking, and sense of ownership and connection to their surroundings.

The outcome of the activity resulted in students confidently identifying their address, demonstrating map-making proficiency, deepening their geographical understanding, and feeling empowered in their ability to navigate their environment. Recommendations for improvement included incorporating interactive map-based tools, real-life scenarios, and promoting peer collaboration to enhance engagement and learning further.

Story Telling

On Wednesday, April 10, 2024, Gyanodaya SMVM School in Khurai organized a captivating Storytelling event for enthusiastic VIII class students from sections A, B, C, and D, led by Mrs. Jayshri Patil.

The event, held in Naykan Hall from 8:50 to 9:00 a.m., showcased students' imaginative prowess as they transported the audience into worlds of tragedy, comedy, science fiction, horror, and more through compelling storytelling techniques. Esteemed judges Mr. Rakesh Bahadur and Mr. Himanshu Upadhyaya, along with the presence of school dignitaries including Principal Dr. Abhinav Shukla, Vice Principal Andrea Mallya, and coordinator Edward Collins, added prestige to the event.

The objective was to enhance students' individual, psychological, and educational development, achieved through effective storytelling that fosters emotional connections, prompts reflection, and inspires action.

Notable participants like Mansi Chourasiya, Yashika Nema, and Aayush Bathri were recognized as the rock stars of the event. The activity's impact included improved imagination, vocabulary, and communication skills among students. Recommendations for improvement focused on enhancing children's skills in handling modern equipment and tools effectively.

Vachan Kaushal

On Wednesday, April 10, 2024, Gyanodaya SMVM Hr Sec School's Hindi Department organized a Reading Skills Workshop overseen by Ayushi Samaiya. Twelve fifth-grade students participated, aiming to enhance their Hindi language proficiency, confidence in expression, and creative writing skills.

The workshop emphasized simplicity, fluency, and effective communication in Hindi. Participants engaged in interactive sessions, benefiting from the event's focus on skill development. The workshop concluded successfully, with the fifth-grade (E) being declared the winners by Judge Ms. Kusum Patel.

INTRODUCTION TO INDIAN POLITICAL PARTIES

On Saturday, April 13, 2024, Mr. Hemant Kumar Mayhar and Mr. Salil Jain led an event titled "Description and Introduction of Indian Political Parties" at an undisclosed institution. The objective was to provide students with basic knowledge about various political parties, raise awareness about the objectives of democracy, and foster political interest among them.

The activity successfully achieved its goals as students gained insight into different political parties, including their ideologies and significance in democracy. Recommendations for improvement included ensuring comprehensive coverage of parties, including lesser-known ones, regularly updating information, incorporating multimedia elements, and offering comparative analysis to deepen understanding of Indian politics.

DANCE COMPETITION

On Saturday, April 20th, 2024, Gyanodaya SMVM Senior Secondary School hosted the vibrant "Inter-House Dance Competition" under the guidance of Miss Priyanka Biswas. Students from classes VI to VIII showcased their talents in Bollywood dance styles, infusing the Naykan Hall stage with energy and creativity.

The event aimed to cultivate team spirit, creativity, and cultural appreciation among students, promoting healthy competition and collaboration among different houses. Tagore House emerged as the winner, with participants from various houses demonstrating their skills and enthusiasm. The competition not only celebrated the diversity of Bollywood dance but also fostered confidence, school spirit, and lasting memories among the participants.
